Paul Fortino | Partner

Paul Fortino is a trial lawyer. Over the years, he has been first chair at hundreds of jury trials, bench trials, injunctive proceedings and dispositive motions. In recent years, his focus has been on trial of complex business torts, intellectual property and patent cases, products liability claims, and resolution of large contract disputes.

Paul has been praised and recognized by his peers. He has been named to the Board of Regents of the American College of Trial Lawyers and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers and a Fellow of the International Society of Barristers. Among numerous other honors, he has been recognized as one of the Lawdragon 500 "Leading Litigators in America," a top litigator in Oregon by Chambers USA, an "Oregon Superlawyer" and listed in The Best Lawyers in America for 10 consecutive years. He recently received the Learned Hand Award in recognition of his contributions to the legal profession.

Paul has served as President of the Federal Bar Association of Oregon, President of the Oregon Association of Defense Counsel, State Chair of the American College of Trial Lawyers, and as a delegate to the Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference. He has written and taught extensively on subjects involving trials, litigation and civil procedure.

Pravin B. Rao | Partner

Pravin Rao, a partner in the firm's Litigation practice, is uniquely positioned as both a former Federal and State prosecutor as well as an SEC enforcement Branch Chief to provide comprehensive representation and counseling to clients on complex criminal and civil matters. Pravin has drawn on his unique securities and commercial fraud background to assist a large number of individuals and Fortune 500 companies respond to government inquiries and conduct internal investigations in significant and sensitive areas, including those with financial fraud, FCPA, and corporate governance issues.

Prior to joining Perkins Coie, Pravin served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney where he supervised and developed strategies in investigations that targeted violations of federal criminal law, including commodity and securities fraud, bank fraud, mail/wire fraud, mortgage fraud, bankruptcy fraud, credit card fraud, identity theft, copyright infringement, internet fraud, public corruption, tax offenses, health care fraud, money laundering, arson, narcotics, firearms, civil rights violations, child pornography, perjury and obstruction. Pravin developed a unique perspective from conducting parallel investigations with the SEC, CFTC, and other regulators in complex cases involving large publicly traded companies, directors and officers, broker-dealers and hedge funds. Pravin is also a seasoned trial attorney with a winning track record, having tried 10 jury trials and argued 11 appeals in federal courts, and served as "first chair" in numerous trials and over 25 appeals in State courts.

Before becoming a federal prosecutor, Pravin served as an Enforcement Branch Chief with the SEC, where he directed numerous high profile investigations and litigation involving financial statement and disclosure fraud, insider trading, investment advisory fraud, prime bank and Ponzi schemes, market manipulation, failure to supervise, broker-dealer misconduct, and record-keeping, reporting and registration violations. Pravin has maintained his ties to the SEC, having recently been appointed Regional Chair of the Association of
